PRICE, THREE CENTS

Pennac Wins Fourth Over Narberth Club

Error Aids Victory of Athletic Club in Twilight Match.

MARTIN CLOUTS TRIPLE

An error on the part of John Mulligan in the third inning, up to which time Narberth held a one-run lead over Penn A. C., outstanding Nemesis of the home club, and another by Young, in the fifth, proved the downfall of the Narberth Club in a twilight game Wednesday. The young moundman did his utmost that he might turn in his second consecutive victory, but the Pennac Club came well prepared to avenge themselves of their last defeat at the hands of the local nine. They introduced four new players, including Roepke, the sensational speed-ball artist, who is Pennac's ultimate hope in turning in a victory. With this reserve they managed to take their fourth game out of five encounters.

The Davismen started the fracas in elegant style, amassing two runs in the first inning, but the exotic lads of the Quaker City emulated this feat in the subsequent frame only to be left behind in the second when the home-town sent a lone tally across.

But this fluctuating action ceased in the third when Mulligan usurped the role of conjuror and, like a veteran in this act, juggled the ball repeatedly, only to be withdrawn from the game to prevent further disaster. Two hostile runs slipped over the pentagon due to this error.

Caniglia singled in the third and Young reached first when Mulligan erred, Caniglia going to third. Jeffries blanked and Martin ousted Henrich unassisted, but when Mulligan failed to intercept his assist for a double on second, Caniglia counted. Foley singled hard to Graham, the ball glancing off his glove, Young crossing in the meantime. Foley was run down off third.

The fourth was the only zero inning of the game, but Pennac tallied again in the fifth, raising the score to six runs to three. The invaders and the Davismen both assembled one run apiece in the seventh and sixth, respectively.

Caniglia's first offering in the third struck Walter Masters on the head, whereupon the Penn University baseball star took his base and Robert (Bob) Martin, winged-foot Adonis, clouted the hardest hit of the season, when he cracked McEntee's fast ball over the centerfielder's dome for a three-ply shot, the ball rolling close to the Community Library Building.

Merion Scouts Hold Banquet; Eight Are To Attend Jamboree

Merion Boy Scouts and their fathers attended, eighty strong, their annual banquet last Thursday evening at the Merion Scout House. Scoutmaster Alfred Wall was master of ceremonies. Talks were given by H. H. Lineaweaver and T. Dun Belfield, who presented annual awards as follows:

William Way, George Mills and William Ferguson—scoutmaster's prizes for best advancement in year.

Congratulations and best wishes were extended Assistant Scoutmaster George F. Pettinos, Jr., about to wed. Concluding the program was a cinema, "Our Gang in Paris," shown for the benefit of those Merion scouts who will not attend the International Jamboree this summer. The eight scouts who will go abroad will spend an additional week in Paris.

Complete List of Baseball Contributions

The honor roll of supporters of the Narberth Baseball Club is completed this week. Without the generous support of citizens and business men the club would have hard sledding. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a white satin gown with a long tulle veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and baby's breath. Miss Kathleen Ryan, of Philadelphia, who was bridesmaid, wore yellow chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wafer left on a wedding trip.

On the notification committee to officially inform Dr. Taitt of his selection is the Rev. A. E. Clattenburg, rector of St. John's Church, Bala-Cynwyd.

During the past year five men elected at earlier conventions have declined the post.

Purse Presented to Miss Wetherill

Friends Make Gifts to Primary Grade Teacher Retiring This Year.

THANKS ARE EXPRESSED

A purse of $315 in gold was presented last Friday by friends and former pupils to Miss Nellie Wetherill, primary grade teacher at the Narberth School, who retires from active teaching this year.

Accompanying the purse was the following note: "In appreciative recognition of your years of long and honorable service, many of that host whom you have in their early years guided along the pathways of learning have joined with your friends, both past and present, in presenting you this token of their esteem and affection together with the hope that you may enjoy, through many years, the happiness and contentment you have so well earned."

Miss Wetherill closes a teaching career of forty-six years this June, twenty-six of which have been spent in the Narberth schools.

The following note expressing Miss Wetherill's surprise at and appreciation of the gift came to this office unsolicited:

"Surely I have found the end of the rainbow, for a few days ago there was sent to me not a pot, but a casket of gold. Only a slip containing a brief message came with it. The message said that the gold was a gift from former and present pupils, their parents and friends of the past and the present."

"I wish to thank most heartily all of those who were in any way interested in that lovely gift."

"The past year has been one of great trial for me and I am indebted to many for their kindness. The thoughtfulness and generosity of the Board of Education, the sympathy and helpfulness of the principal of the school and the members of the faculty, the loving efforts to help made by the little folks in the class under my care, the honor given me by the Mothers' Council, and finally the casket of gold expressing the appreciation of so many friends have given to me a host of golden memories that will remain with me through the coming years. Wherever I may be during the future I shall always think with sincere gratitude of the great kindness of my friends in Narberth."

NELLIE M. WETHERILL, 200 Dudley Ave., Narberth, Pa. June 18, 1929.

Tuesday Year's Warmest

Tuesday of this week, when the mercury reached 94, was the hottest day of the year. This peak followed a week of temperatures which ranged from 2 to 12 degrees above normal, according to the figures of Charles Decker, U. S. Weather Observer, with offices at Narberth. The low-high records beginning last Wednesday were: Wednesday, 55-85; Thursday, 59-90; Friday, 68-92; Saturday, 65-83; Sunday, 62-87; Monday, 63-90.

To Blow Whistle

Last year there were said to be only three citizens who did not contribute to the Fourth of July Celebration Fund. One of them, when approached, said, "You can whistle for it."

So this year, every evening at 7, the Narberth fire whistle will blow to remind the good residents of the borough to send in their contributions to the fund. The committee, mindful of Revolutionary days, have dubbed the daily whistle the "Revere Signal."

Narberth Man Saves Three From Drowning In Ocean City Surf

Drew J. Toland, 18 Elmwood Avenue, Narberth, will be recommended by Ocean City officials to receive the Carnegie medal for heroism as a result of his rescue, last Saturday, of a man and two small girls from the surf undertow at Ocean City.

At First Avenue, where he with hundreds of others was idling on the beach, Mr. Toland heard cries for help, coming from 200 feet out in the water, where Howard White, 37, of Philadelphia, was in trouble. White was making a desperate effort to keep above the surface the heads of his daughter, Dolores, 10, and 9-year-old Edna Chain, also of Philadelphia.

Removing his coat, Toland dashed into the surf. The crowd on the beach stood breathless as he grasped the almost unconscious White in a rescue hold. Dolores and the other girl instinctively caught hold of their rescuer's belt. Then followed the slow, but tortuous, swim to safety.

An eager throng stood almost waist deep in the breakers and assisted all to the beach. It was necessary to administer restoratives to White and the children before they were escorted to their summer home at the resort. Toland, however, suffered only from fatigue.

Summer School to Open on Monday

Summer school will begin on Monday, June 24, and will continue for thirty days. The school session will begin at 8:30 and continue until 11:30. Homework will not be required, but pupils must attend regularly and punctually from the opening day to the closing session.

The school accepts pupils who have failed of promotion because of deficiency in one or more subjects, those who desire to review subjects in which they are weak and also those who desire to skip a grade. Only pupils of superior ability will be encouraged to attempt to skip grades.

The school is conducted by advanced students from the school of education at the University of Pennsylvania under the general supervision of Principal George H. Wilson.

Bad Checks Net Nurse $100, Is Held For Court

Charged with forging her employer's name on checks amounting to $100, Mrs. Rose M. King, employed as a nurse by Mrs. L. C. Glass, 8 Snowden Road, Bala-Cynwyd, was arrested at her home in Philadelphia last Friday by Lieutenant "Patsy" Mullin, of the Lower Merion police, on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Glass.

It was charged that Mrs. King had cashed the forged checks for $25 each at four different times between June 1 and 13 at the Cynwyd branch of the Merion Title and Trust Company. The forgeries were not noticed until after the nurse had removed all her belongings from her employer's house and made her getaway to Philadelphia. She was held under $600 bail by Magistrate Franklin P. Kromer for Court hearing at Norristown.

List Typhoid, T. B. Cases

Mrs. F. R. Kirkland, Old Gulf Road, Wynnewood, was last week reported suffering from typhoid fever—the first case reported this year in Lower Merion. Health Officer Marvin E. Reynolds also reported one case of scarlet fever—Blanche Swing, 821 Morton Road, Bryn Mawr—two of chickenpox, one erysipelas, three measles, two tuberculosis and eight whooping cough, making a contagious disease total for the week of eighteen cases. The tuberculosis cases were both in the South Ardmore district.

Plans Underway For Fourth Celebration

Citizens Committee Issues Appeal For Necessary Funds.

WILL BE THE BEST YET

Preliminary reports indicate that Narberth's Fourth of July celebration this year promises to exceed, in size and scope, the observance of previous natal days of the nation, and to assure a complete fulfillment of the ambitious program the committee in charge is stressing the need of prompt and generous contributions towards the expenses of the occasion.

On Monday of next week an appeal for funds will be mailed to a selected list of borough residents, all those who are credited with a proper share of community appreciation, and who, it is believed, will be quick to respond to the call which is made on them.

In previous years it has been the custom to make a door-to-door canvass in pursuit of the wherewithal of this observance, but this plan appeared to lack, in the opinion of many citizens, a proper regard for all the circumstances of the case, and last year's experience would seem to prove the contention that all which it is necessary to do to secure a sufficient sum is to bring the matter to the attention of properly disposed men and women and a generous amount will be quickly secured.

In 1928 the donations, all by mail, exceeded any previous anniversary, and this year's collections are expected to be half as much again. At any rate, plans under way anticipate a larger collection than last year and there is every prospect that the committee will not be disappointed.

Courtesy tags, with subscriber's name inscribed, will be sent in acknowledgment of all contributions and Our Town will also publish a complete list of all donations.

And to emphasize the fact that the committee is traveling on a scheduled speed, the fire house siren will rear its beseeching voice at 7 o'clock each evening, all next week, as a robust reminder that the day is near upon us and that the coin should drop in the box without undue delay—the kind of coin that drops without any tinnabulations, except, of course, those tinkling gold pieces which are covered by a special dispensation.

J. J. Carbery is chairman of the Citizens' Committee, which includes Daniel Leitch as president of Council, Dr. LeRoy King, secretary of the School Board, and Colonel A. A. Keesler as president of the Board of Trade. The treasurer is J. L. McCrery, of the Narberth National Bank, where all remittances for the fund should be made.

The field celebration will be under the direction of the American Legion.

All Hands Around

In its appeal for subscriptions to the Fourth of July Fund, the Citizens' Committee is stressing the distinctive obligation which imposes on a community in this section to provide more than a casual observance of the Nation's Birthday.

In all parts of America the day will be celebrated with various degrees of patriotic fervor, but it would seem to be peculiarly fitting that the very locale of some of the most memorable of Revolutionary happenings should seek to give special and intelligent significance to the recurring anniversary, and there is little doubt that this conception of things will be endorsed by every resident of Narberth who is at all informed on the history and traditions of the neighborhood hereabouts.

Let the response for financial aid be prompt and generous, and even if some of our people will be away from the borough on the Fourth, let them not be unmindful of the fact that this is an occasion for EVERYBODY to come across.

Whether you are here—

Or whether you are there—

We are sure you will want

To pay your share.

Must Be Signed

Certain folks around town are fond of wasting time, note paper and ink. We refer to the matter of unsigned communications. A signature at the bottom of a letter is evidence of its author's good faith. While the use of a non-de-plume or of the old stand-by "Taxpayer" does not necessarily invalidate the contents of the letter, still it is not quite playing fair. A paper, or any one else for that matter, has a right to know the source of information brought to their attention. It is a more or less general rule to pay no attention to unsigned communications.

In the case of letters for publication it is not necessary that the author's name be published so long as the editor knows from whom the letter comes. Names will be withheld if desired, but all communications must be signed.

It might be just as well to remind residents that communications to the borough are also promptly filed in the scrap basket unless they bear a signature. Mr. Supple, the Superintendent of Public Works, is a conscientious public servant, but he will not undertake to investigate matters brought to his attention when they bear no other signature than "Taxpayer."

The War Is On

War has been declared and the enemy will soon be in our midst. Will your property be ravaged or have you taken the necessary precautions?

The "enemy" is the thrice-cursed pest, the Japanese beetle, which first made known its presence at Riverton, N. J., and has year by year extended its scope until the better part of three States are now supplying it with fodder.

Warnings against it have been more plentiful than ever this year. It has been editorialized against in leading newspapers and advice on how to combat it broadcast by government agencies. This paper also has contained its share of the propaganda.

It is the duty of every resident who wishes to protect his trees and shrubs against the ravages of the beetle and who wishes to eliminate the pest from the country to take simple measures. The first of these is to spray or have sprayed his trees and shrubbery. The second is to set beetle traps and help kill off as many beetles as possible. Every beetle which lives through the season burrows into the ground and produces eggs which will hatch into hundreds of beetles by next year.

The Narberth Shade Tree Commission has given their official sanction to the Bartlett Tree Expert Company, of Cynwyd. This concern is equipped to handle the job of spraying for the entire community, and, given proper support, can do it at a very low rate. To be effective, however, this service will have to be utilized by the great majority of residents. If half a dozen property owners on a street only have their trees and shrubs sprayed it will mean that the beetles will simply migrate to the nearest unsprayed property. Do you want your foliage ruined?

Hold Fete Next Friday

A Lawn Fete will be held on the grounds of the Baptist Church of the Evangel on Friday, June 28, from 3 to 8 P. M. It is presented under the auspices of the Church School. The attractions include a home bake, a children's corner, a fortune teller and a supper from 5:30 to 7. Ice cream and lemonade will also be served.

Gets D. S. C.

Dr. O. J. Snyder, 300 North Narberth Avenue, who was among those honored this week with a distinguished service certificate by the American Osteopathic Association at its 31st annual international convention. Hold Final Meeting

Its last meeting of the season was held by the Executive Board of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women last Thursday night at the home of the chairman, Mrs. H. Tatnall Brown, Jr., Haverford. Plans were made to hold the next public meeting of the organization in October in Narberth.

Two large and interesting meetings were held since the Council was organized here: one at the Woman's Club in Ardmore in January, and one at the Bala-Cynwyd Woman's Club in May.

UNCLE CY'S COLUMN

This is the fifth of a series of articles on "Prohibition" expressing the personal views of the contributor on the present state of affairs.

Prohibition.

We have seen the good that resulted from prohibition or incidental to and simultaneously with it. There are also grave evils, perhaps the worst of which is the lawless enforcement of the law.

This is a problem which every dry nation must face, and the daily papers reflect the horrors attendant upon this legal state of aridity. We have read of old women sentenced to a life in prison for selling a pint of contraband beverage, of yachtsmen who were insulted before their families and guests by profane and unnecessarily abusive guardsmen, of Florida residents whose lives were endangered by wild bullets fired at a supposed run-runner, of revenue officers who tricked people into breaking the law so that they might prosecute them, and immeasurable bribery and corruption from the policeman on his beat up to official circles in the nation's capitol. Such a condition is not healthy.

There is also the danger of poison to those who will drink whether or not the law permits such privilege. Inhuman fanatics have approved these deaths from poison liquor as a boon to humanity. I hope that all such reformers overeat and suffer horribly from gout. If you are interested in the "other side" of the prohibition question read Courtlandt Nicoll's article in the North American Review June issue, entitled "The Farce of Enforcement." According to Ralph Beaver Strassburger, there is only one other country in which prohibition is a law, and that is Hedjaz in Asia Minor. This community is inhabited by puritan Mohammedans whose sultan has made drinking a capital offense. Finland allows not more than 2 per cent. alcohol and punishes public drunkenness. The Turkish Government is carrying on propaganda to make citizens drink alcohol to increase government funds. Most civilized countries now punish drunkenness or public disorder, but no other Nordic group disallows, "Thou shalt never drink!"

The mess that is rolling along in the wake of this hasty act is threatening us with social disintegration which I believe will lower our national tone of morality and civic responsibility more than any reaction due to the war. The human being and particularly the hot-headed and iconoclastic American will never observe a rule or law which he considers stupid, or an invasion of his personal rights or prerogatives. We are all descended from a semi-lawless pioneer stock that came here because it was dissatisfied with the restraint and rigid supervision of the parent country. It is not surprising that so many rise to object to all restraint. Those who are strong-minded and fair-minded must decide just where to draw lines and just how stringent rules can be enforced.

What will our children make out of this situation? They have not taught themselves to drink. The riotous and undisciplined behavior of their elders, gleefully seeking ways to defeat both the spirit and letter of the law, has been transmitted to them just as much as the belief that our so-called Democracy is the most satisfactory form of government. Shall we continue to hand down this priceless heritage of lawlessness, drunkenness, and attendant laxity in defiance of an unwisely-conceived law; shall we enforce observance of the law, which has not yet been done; shall we wipe out the law and return to another extreme of exultant tipsiness as a protest against our dry years, or shall we amend the law and alter and adjust it to human desires and tendencies so that it may protect society and assure a safe prospect for the younger element? I'll express more views next week, and drop the subject for awhile.

I am indebted to a local scribe for a contribution on bridge and will hold his cards up my sleeve for a week or two longer.

All Sales Final

Among the Business Men

This week finds the alterations to Cotter's Market virtually completed and a finer looking store one does not often see. Not only is it about twice the size of the former, having been extended back into part of the old Y building, but the furnishings have been modernized throughout. The refrigerator is about three times the size of the former one and is the latest type Frigidaire. Even the white walls make one feel cool these torrid days, while the display of fruits and groceries is most attractively arranged. The architect for Mr. Cotter's new store was J. Bedford Wooley, of Cynwyd, and the builder, Charles L. Jenkins, of Old Gulph Road, Narberth.

If one happens to see a shiny new Ford delivery truck burning up the streets of Narberth it would be a good guess that it is Tom Merkle at the helm of the Narberth Hardware Company's new machine. Tom can also be seen any day dusting specks off the fenders, Richards-Fisher, Ford dealers, of Bala-Cynwyd, effected the sale.

Speaking of trucks, another of the Narberth Coal Company's fleet has emerged in its summer coloring of brilliant orange. The contrast between the orange and the dusky hues of cargo and drivers is a pleasing one.

Adelizzi Brothers, tailors, are now showing a new line of woollens, Ferris, of Pittsburgh. They are guaranteed to be only virgin wool from the best imported and domestic makers. Ferris is well known throughout the western part of the State.

Many good bargains in used cars are offered in advertisements in this week's issue of the Richards-Fisher Company and the Kirsch Chevrolet Company, both of Cynwyd. We welcome the Richards-Fisher Company to our columns as an advertiser this week.

Some extremely attractive sport shoes are being shown by John Drizin in the Theatre Building. There is no need for any one to make a hot trip downtown for summer footwear when one can do as well or better right here in Narberth.

The Wednesday afternoon closing is being pretty regularly observed by the majority of the stores in the borough. Obvious exceptions are the drug stores, the tailoring establishments which will no doubt follow their annual custom in closing Saturday afternoons during July and August, and the Narberth Coal Company, which follows Mr. Ford's example and shuts up all day Saturday.

Sports in Brief

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, Merion Cricket Club, added another championship to her list of victories this season when she and Phil Corson defeated Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Newton, of the Whitmarsh host club, 5 and 3, in the final round for the Philadelphia mixed foursome championship. Mrs. H. H. Dolan and D. Kennedy, of Merion, were winners in the "fourth eight."

Miss Marjorie Gladman, of the University of Southern California, won the finals of women's Pennsylvania and Eastern States tennis championships at the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, last Friday when she defeated Miss Anne B. Townsend, of the home club, in straight sets, 6-0, 6-2. In the doubles final Miss Virginia Hilleary, Philadelphia C. C., and Miss Dorothy Andrus, Stamford, Conn., won the title from Mrs. Crawford C. Madeira and Miss Anne Page, both of Merion C. C., 6-0 and 6-4.

Cynwyd still leads the first division of the Middle States Tennis League. In a contest with Overbrook, abbreviated by rain to three singles matches, Cynwyd came through with a clean slate on Saturday. In Division B, Cynwyd is runner-up to Germantown.

Tom Ottey, Ardmore, former Lower Merion High star, ran the swiftest race in the Mitchell A. A. run over the streets of South Philadelphia on Saturday. He was clocked in 41 minutes 54 seconds. Because of handicaps, Ottey, who wore the Meadowbrook Club colors, was awarded eighth position.

Winners in the Middle States tennis championships at Merion Cricket Club: Singles, Fritz Mercur, Penn. A. C.; mixed doubles, Virginia Hilleary, Philadelphia C. C., and Fritz Mercur, Penn. A. C.; doubles, J. Norris Williams, Merion C. C., and Tamio Abe, Japan.

In the opening of the new Montgomery-Delaware counties police baseball league the Norristown cops easily defeated the Haverford Township peace officers, 9 to 2. The Haverford lineup included Wilcox, Conroy, Turner, Humphries, Francis, McFadden, Hartness, March, Miller and O'Connor.

On Monday the intercollegiate tennis championships are scheduled to open at the Merion Cricket Club.

Order Your Apartment
In Advance
and Have It As You Want It

MAKE a leisurely inspection of the exhibition apartments now being shown at The Barclay and decide how you would like an apartment done and where you would place your furniture, if you lived there. The apartments—done by John Wanamaker—give some indication of the charming possibilities of these generously spaced and carefully planned suites. They are rented unfurnished in the housekeeping section and either furnished or unfurnished in the hotel section.

By choosing an apartment now, before going away for the summer, you have plenty of time to work out your own individualized plan of decoration. During the summer your orders will be carried out in every detail and in the fall the apartment will be ready to move into at your convenience. Tenants thus avoid the frantic dashing about and resigned acceptance of ordinary decoration which usually results from a last minute hunt for a fall apartment.

Housekeeping Apartments: Rentals, unfurnished eight rooms, from $6,500. Eleven rooms, from $8,400.

Bryn Mawr Polo Team Beats Harvard, 10-8

Six goals' handicap was insufficient to prevent the Crimson from going down in defeat in a polo match between Bryn Mawr and Harvard Tuesday at the former's oval. Harvard's quartet rode well and took advantage of every opportunity given, but the Bryn Mawr victory was a foregone conclusion with that stellar combination of David Wolfenden, Wister Randolph, Barclay McFadden and George H. Earle, 3d, in the line-up.

SO THEY SAY

"If you make people think they think, they'll love you. If you really make them think, they'll hate you." —Don Marquis.

Harvard Vs. Princeton In Polo Saturday

Harvard makes its initial appearance in the intercollegiate polo championships of the United States in the semifinals on Saturday at the Philadelphia Country Club, Bala. Harvard drew a bye in the first round that was started on Saturday last and finished on Monday when Yale defeated the Pennsylvania Military College. Harvard's opponent will be the strong Princeton team, which took the measure of West Point last Saturday in the first game in the championship tournament.

COVERINGS

you have neglected to weather-proof the roof. Better attend to it NOW, by using some of our Vertical Grain Cedar Shingles, either natural or Creo-Dipt in the various shades of Green, Red, Brown and Gray. These are unusually attractive for both roof and side walls, and may be laid right over the present roof. If you are partial to Asphalt Shingles, we carry in stock the nationally known Johns-Mansville product in a carefully selected line of colors.
